

STIPENDIARY LECTURESHIP (6 HOURS) IN LAW

Oriel College seeks to appoint a Stipendiary Lecturer in Law for a term of from January 2023 to end of December 2023. Candidates should have made substantial progress toward completing a doctorate or have completed a relevant postgraduate qualification in Law, and should be equipped to undertake tutorial teaching and associated duties.

OVERVIEW OF THE COLLEGE

Oriel is a friendly and attractive College located right in the heart of Oxford. Founded in 1326 by King Edward II, it is one of the oldest Colleges in Oxford. The student body at Oriel is made up of undergraduates and postgraduates studying a wide variety of courses in a broad range of subjects. The students come from all kinds of schools, backgrounds and countries, and the College is committed to selecting the best applicants, based on academic achievement and potential, irrespective of educational background, gender or ethnicity. For further information about Oriel College see www.oriel.ox.ac.uk

DUTIES OF THE APPOINTMENT

To act as a College Lecturer in Law with a stint of 6 hours per week:

- a. To undertake teaching for an average of 6 contact hours per week during term time to undergraduates at Oriel College, or to students at other colleges in return for payment to be remitted to Oriel. Teaching arrangements will be coordinated by the Organizing Tutor in Law, Dr Paul Yowell. Students should receive appropriate guidance for completing work in advance of tutorials and appropriate written feedback on written work submitted.

Specific teaching duties:

The precise teaching duties are flexible, and may to some extent be adapted to the successful candidate's areas of expertise and experience. However, it is essential that the Lecturer be able to teach at least one, and preferably two, of the following subjects: Constitutional Law, Administrative Law, Jurisprudence. Details of papers can be found at www.law.ox.ac.uk/admissions/undergraduate/ba-jurisprudence

- b. To set and mark Collections (beginning of term internal College exams) as required, and to write end of term Tutorial Reports on OxCORT.
- c. To meet the relevant undergraduates in 0th week at the start of each term to confirm arrangements for the term's work, and again in 8th week to review progress made.

- d. To provide academic guidance and pastoral care to undergraduate students, and liaise with other College staff in order to address any problems which may arise.
- e. To provide information as necessary on students' academic progress at meetings of the College's Tutorial Committee.
- f. To play a full part in the undergraduate admissions process (weeks 9 and 10 of Michaelmas Term, usually early December), conducting interviews and assisting in administration. Admissions training will be provided.
- g. To participate in College Open Days and other schools liaison or widening participation activities for the College.
- h. To act as a Postgraduate College Advisor to one or more students undertaking postgraduate study in a related field.

SELECTION CRITERIA

- Candidates should have made substantial progress toward completing a doctorate or have completed a relevant postgraduate qualification.
- Teaching experience would be an advantage.

TERMS AND BENEFITS

The basic stipend will be according to the Senior Tutors' Committee recommended scale for full-time stipendiary lecturers with a teaching stint of 6 hours per week with a stipend within spine points 1-5 of the Stipendiary lecturer's scale per annum, (depending on experience). Contributory membership of USS (the Universities Superannuation Scheme) is also offered. The post-holder will also have access to a research allocation of £902.50 per annum. The Lecturer will be entitled to free lunch and dinner in the Senior Common Room.
