

Beginner's guide to Oxford

Here is a map of the city to help you get your bearings. (Please excuse the odd mismatch in the key – it's just an edited version of the Open Day map!)

Here are all the key locations of colleges, faculties, libraries, and other spots worth knowing!

Jericho is full of hidden gems, especially on Little Clarendon Street!

All the science buildings are right next to University Parks, one of Oxford's many green spaces.

Oriel is a very central college.

All sections of the canal walk are perfect for a tranquil break from the hustle and bustle.

JMH is a 10-minute walk from college. It is surrounded by great cafés, restaurants, and bars, and is near to South Parks. Iffley Road Sports Centre is a 5-minute walk away.

At the bottom of Christ Church Meadows lies Boathouse Island, where college rowing largely takes place.
